

Democratic County Convention.

A Delegate Convention is hereby called to meet in the City of Ironton, on Monday, the 12th day of June, 1905, at 2 o'clock P. M., for the purpose of nominating a Democratic candidate for the office of Sheriff of Iron County, Mo. The basis of representation shall be 1 delegate for every 25 Democratic votes and the fraction over 10 cast at the late general election.

The various precincts in the county shall be entitled to the following number of delegates at said convention: Des Arc, 5; Annapolis, 5; Polk's, 2; Dunn's, 2; Ironton, 9; Pilot Knob, 2; Graniteville, 4; Bellevue, 5; Imboden, 1; Kaolin, 1; Bell's, 1; Love's, 1; Henderson, 1.

Said Committee further ordered that Township Mass Meetings for the purpose of selecting Delegates to said Convention be held on Saturday, June 10, 1905, at two o'clock P. M., at the above named places, with the exception of Pilot Knob. The Mass Meeting in Ironton will be for the whole of Arcadia Township.

By order of the Committee,
June 3, 1905. W. R. EDGAR,
Chairman.

ARTHUR HUFF, Sec'y.

It is much easier to be devotional than moral.

If the lid has to be secured with a bayonet or held down with a cannon-ball, the inference is that the pot is bilin' mightily.

The Quaker who, through the out of his clothes, seeks to find favor with God, at least tries to conform his mind to the honest simplicity of his garments. We may smile at his peculiarities, but we respect him nevertheless. I wish our Governor were more of a Quaker and less of a pretentious charlatan.

The Russian authorities are in the lid business, too; but one of these days the lid will rise and blow'em all to Kingdom Come. An engine boiler is never so innocent-looking as just before the explosion. Let the Czar beware the enforced quietude of his subjects. A little vent now and then oft prevents disaster.

The papers are lauding one Dr. Bryant because, when the exigencies of business demanded his removal from Cleveland, O., to Muscogee, Ind. Ter., he moved a 15-room house—the home dwelling—to his new place of abode, in order to please his mother-in-law. For my part, I attach the honor to the mother-in-law whose virtues exact such willing tribute. The son-in-law is at an incident; the woman the cause.

The South Side Teutonic element wouldn't shout for Folk this year. I don't know that this fact makes so much against the Governor as Governor, as it tends to show how vain and inconclusive is the logic of passing popularity. Last year, for enforcing law against offenders, Folk was seated in the seventh heaven, crown in hand and wings full-grown; this year, for still carrying out the provisions of the statutes, he is being vigorously cussed in High and Low Deutsch, in picturesque Irish and vigorous American. What inconsistent fools these mortals be!

LOCAL option in Dunklin county:

Fifty-two gallons of booze off the north-bound train and fourteen off the south-bound, besides twenty cases of beer, last Friday, followed by a waterspout and several fights Saturday morning, is not as bad as it might have been. Other towns and railroads get the revenue, Police Judge Holt gets the booze and the booze gets h—ll or into Arkansas, is about all we know about it.—Campbell Citizen.

There is no money in the county road and bridge fund. Since the saloon licenses were cut out, the principal source of revenue of this fund has disappeared. A serious problem confronts the county in this matter. There is money yet in the revenue fund.—Dunklin Democrat.

O, YES, we're all down on the trusts; we piously talk of "tainted" money that somebody else ought not receive; and, in the abstract, have virtuous scorn for the stock-breaking multi-millionaire—and all that. But let a stranger come into our community, and the first question asked is, "what is he worth?" "O, a hundred thousand dollars!" That settles it and him and us. We never think of inquiring, "How did he acquire his wealth?" No, no! He's got it and that puts out of order all other concernment. Which of us, if we were proffered a gift of half a million, would care a continental where it came from or how it was accumulated? Taking us, big-and-large, we are a fine lot of hypocritical pretenders. And some of us hope to impose our outward semblance upon the Lord, too!

THE Dunklin county road fund has gone glimmering since deprived of the revenue that came to it before the saloon was voted out, and the highways of that bailiwick are crying aloud for care and repair. It ought not to be so. Where are those prominent citizens who guaranteed to make up, if necessary, the sums erstwhile paid by the saloons? Has their zeal for civic virtue died out—their enthusiasm evaporated? Do their purses refuse to relax at the call of promise, and are their pocket-nerves gone dead to the touch of fulfillment? In this your hour of distress, brethren, why not call to your aid the services of him of the Scott County Kicker? He hath a gad for every evil and knows a balm for Virtue's every wound.
